NEW-LONDON:

PRINTED AND SOLD BY SAMUEL GREEN.

ECLIPSES for the Year 1800.

There will be four Eclipses this year, two of the sun and two of the moon, in the following order, viz.

The first will be of the moon, April 9th, at 10.19m. in the morning, invisible.

The second will be of the sun, April 23d. at 4.45 min. in the evening, invisible to us.

The third will be in $8^{\circ} 33'$ S. lat. $33'$ N. The sun will be centrally eclipsed on the meridian at 165° E. and lat. $55\frac{1}{2}$ N.

The fourth will be of the Moon, October 2d. in the morning. A small part of the going off may be seen by those who have a good horizontal prospect.

The middle of the eclipse will be at 5h. 9m.

The moon will rise at 5h. 55m.

The eclipse will end at 6h. 4m.

The duration of visibility will be only 9 min.

The fourth will be of the sun, October 18th at 4h. 25m. in the morning, invisible. The sun will be $\sphericalangle 24^{\circ} 45'$. The sun will be centrally and totally eclipsed on the meridian in lat. 50° S. and long, $35^{\circ} 45'$ E. in the great south sea.

Terms of Credit.

When the duties on ad valorem articles are less than 50 dollars, it must be paid immediately; if specific deposit must be made to secure the same, which when ascertained, will be immediately settled.

When the duties on goods imported (where the duties are payable by one person or co-partnership) shall amount to more than fifty dollars, the following credit is allowed by law, except where any bond on which the person or co-partnership entering such goods, wares or merchandise, are either principal or security, and when being due remains undischarged.

On all articles the produce of the West-Indies (excepted) the one half in three months and the other half in six months.

On salt, in nine months.

On Madeira, and all other wines, twelve months.

all goods, &c. from Europe, (wines, salt and teas excepted) the one third in eight, one third in ten, and one third in twelve months.

all goods, &c. (wines, salt and teas excepted) any other place than Europe and the West-Indies, half in six months, one-fourth in nine months, and one-fourth in twelve months.

Teas "from China or Europe, may be deposited at the option of the importer or importers (to be determined at the time of making entry therefor) either to secure the duties thereon, on the same terms and stipulations as on other goods, wares and merchandize imported, or to give his or her or their bond, to the collector of the district, where any such teas shall be landed, in the amount of the duties thereupon, with condition for the payment of the said duties in two years from the date of such bond; which bond shall be accepted by the collector, without surety, upon the terms following: that is to say, The teas, for the duties whereof the bond shall be accepted, shall be deposited at the expense and risk of the said importer or importers, in one or more store-house or store-houses, as the case may require, to be agreed upon," &c. The said teas to be secured upon bond being given with one or more sureties, to the satisfaction of the collector "if the bond shall not exceed 100 dollars, in four months; if the bond shall exceed 100 dollars, and not exceeding 500 dollars, in six months; or if the same shall exceed 500 dollars, in twelve months; so that the term of credit shall not extend beyond two years from the time of depositing the said teas: any teas remaining after the expiration of two years, to be sold by the collector, who shall return the surplus (after paying the duties) to the owner or owners thereof.

When bonds given for duties shall become due, and the importer or importers shall be discharged, the collector to prosecute without delay; in case of insolvency or death, the United States to be the first creditor, "and if any executor, administrator, assignee, or any other person, shall pay any debt due by the person or estate, from whom, or for which they are acting, previous to the debt or debts due to the United States, being fully satisfied and paid, shall become answerable in their own person and estate for the same, in part thereof remaining unsatisfied."

Sureties on all bonds given for duties, shall in case of insolvency or death, of the principal, "have and enjoy the like advantages, priority or preference for the recovery and receipt of the said money out of the estate and effects of such insolvent, or deceased principal, as are reserved to the United States."

When bonds are prosecuted for the recovery of duties due to the United States, judgment to be granted at the return term, "unless the defendant shall in open court the United States Attorney being present, make oath of affirmation, that an error has been committed in the liquidation of the duties demanded upon such bond, specifying the errors alledged to have been committed, and that the same have been notified, in writing, to the collector of the district prior to the commencement of the return term aforesaid."

On all bonds upon which suits shall be commenced, interest shall be allowed at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the time when said bonds became due until the payment thereof."

Duties to be paid where goods are landed, and bonds to be given for securing the duties, if the whole or part of the cargo is destined to different districts.
